JAPANESE-AMERICAN WINS PRIZE AT LENOX

At the recent commencement at Lenox School, Lenox, Mass., the Campbell Prize for the best record in history combined with knowledge of current events was awarded to Howard Kazuro Suzuki. Howard was one of several promising students of Japanese ancestry at government relocation centers who have been awarded scholarships by the National Council to study at preparatory schools and colleges throughout the country. He was recommended by the Reverend Joseph Kitagawa of Hunt, Idaho, to Dr. Alden Drew Kelley, who has charge of placements for the Council.

COLLECT

Almighty and everlasting God, who art always more ready to hear than we to pray, and art wont, to give more than either we desire or deserve; Pour down upon us the abundance of thy mercy, forgiving us those things whereof our conscience is afraid, and giving us those good things which we are not worthy to ask, but through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ, thy Son, our Lord. Amen.

IN THE MAIL BAG -

Florence Anazawa, Caldwell, Idaho. . . .Well, I'm here finally. I got in one day earlier than planned so had to spend my last few cents on a taxi into camp. Had a nice trip-met loads of different people and such. On the trainin from Chicago were a group of G. I's on their way to Los Angeles their port of embarkation. I had a long interesting talk with their chaplain. Tried to phone Gracie in Chicago at her office and home too but couldn't get her at either place Seems funny to be among Japanese again after ten months at school.

George Kakehashi, Camp Savage, Minn. . . .Greeting from Minnesota again. Yes, we're back here up north again but no longer at Savage. We are at Fort Snelling. Having learned that Fr. Dai is here in Minneapolis, we called him this morning and made an appointment to meet him tonight at Y. M. C. A..

Miss Margaret Hester, ...My visits in Evanston and Michigan were very pleasant but I was glad when I finally reached Washington. I missed seeing the Fujimoto's and Dr. Ishibashi after all. The very day I reached Evanston I telephoned, but found Dr. Ishibashi and the Fujimoto's were in Ann Arbor. Mr. Fujimoto called on Sunday morning and I planned to see them that afternoon I was detained by another engagement from the early start I'd hoped to make, and when I got to the Collegiate Institute, also on Sherman Ave., found it was not the right place, so I just had to go on without seeing them. I am enjoying my family so much.

Fr. J. Tsukamoto, Topaz, Utah. . . I have returned several weeks ago from my trip to Spokane after a very delightful visit with Bishop Cross, Father Mason and several members of St. Peter's Church of Seattle, such as Dr. & Mrs. Shigaya, Mr. & Mrs. Matsumoto and others. The number of former Episcopal members is very small but the total number of Japanese living in that city and vicinity numbers probably about a thousand. On Saturday, Bishop Reifsnider, Deaconess Corbett, Dr. Shigaya and I visited Mrs. Ruth Toribara, Mrs. Matsumoto Mrs. Sally Iida, Mr. & Mrs. M. Matsumoto, Mr. & Mrs. S Matsumoto, Mr. & Mrs. S. Fujimura, and Mrs. Mary Kita moto. In the evening, we were invited to Dr. Shigaya's new residence. Saturday morning we met Mr. Haight, the War Relocation Authority Officer who gave us some information about that city. We celebrated the Holy Communion Service at Holy Trinity at 8o'clock Sunday morning and assisted at the Family Mass at 10:30 A. M. and preached at the same service. In the afternoon at three o'clock, I preached at the Methodist Church, where the Re v. John B. Webb is the minister. In the evening, Bishop Reifsnider preached in Japanese while I interpreted that sermon into English. After the service, the whole congregation was invited downstairs to tea. We had a chance to meet and be greeted by many clergyman, many isseis and Caucasian friends.

JAPANESE-AMERICAN POPULAR AT HOLDERNESS SCHOOL, WINS PRIZE - - - - - AT the 1944 commencement an award that won most popular approval from the student body of Holderness School, Plymouth, New Hampshire was the announcement of the Haslam Medal won by Dante Tatsuji Tahara, of Hunt, Idaho, for excellence in scholarship, sportsmanship, and athletics. Tahara attended Holderness only for his senior year, and immediately on his arrival won the liking, respect, and admiration of everyone, both students and faculty. The school feels extremely fortunate in having had the approval of both the War and Navy Departments for purposes of student relocation for Japanese-American students and hopes that its happy experience with Tahara may be repeated in the near future by the opportunity to admit another student from one of the relocation centers.
